2. SURCHARGE FOR LATE PAYMENT OF TUITION: Croutons is a component part of a non-profit corporation that depends on tuition income to cover salaries and other expenses. The Board of Directors has determined that in order to be fair to all parents and guardians, and to deter late payment of tuition, a surcharge of 10% may be assessed against any parent and guardian who is more than 30 working days late in paying and amounts due, and who has not agreed to a payment plan. A child's enrollment may be terminated for failure to pay tuition and penalty charges. In addition, the Board of Directors may act to collect overdue accounts by legal processes.
